Week	Focus
1	What makes one book different from another? An investigation Look at a selection of different books you may have at home: recipe, story, fiction, non-fiction, maps, photo and a dictionary. Think about Why are they different? What different information do they give us? Why are they each useful? Activity Make a contents page or a list of information that you would include in a book about something or someone or somewhere special to you.
2	Making your own Special Book Activity For ideas as to where to begin, start off by using the list of information or contents list you made last week. Your book can be about a special person, place or thing, the choice is yours. Don't forget to include some lovely drawings too. Think about Why is your book different to other books? Where are you going to keep your special book? How are you going to look after it?

3	Different special books for different faiths Think about  The Bible is a special book for Christians.  Why?  What is it about?  What does it tell us? Activity  Nearly everyone has a favourite bible story,  Noah's Ark  Moses; The baby in the basket  The Creation  Jonah and the whale  Daniel in the Lion's den These are just a few suggestions, you may have one of your own. Make a little story book, retelling the story in your own words with lovely illustrations. It doesn't have to be long. OR Remember the lovely story wheels you made for Holy Week?  Use that idea to tell the story.
4	Different special books for different faiths Investigation  The Qur'an is a special book for who?  What is it about?  What does it tell us? RE-Quest.org.uk is a good place to look to find out the information you need. Find one of the many lovely stories that Mohammad told and make a book or a storyboard to tell your version of the story.  BBC Bitesize KS1 RE will help you with this activity.

5	Different special books for different faiths Investigation  The Torah is a special book for who?  What is it about?
